The RxFiles Drug Comparison Charts has been published since 2000. Over the years, we've been fortunate to receive reviews, feedback, and writing help from a long list of contributors including physicians, pharmacists, nurse practitioners, podiatrists, biochemists, and physiotherapists.

A huge THANK YOU to everyone who has helped.

RxFiles is part of the College of Pharmacy and Nutrition at the University of Saskatchewan; thank you to the College for your support. A list of reviewers and contributors specific to this 13th Edition is found below; your expertise has been invaluable.
